

GLNE BUDDY

Buddy Badge

You can gain the Buddy Badge for bringing a new friend of Beaver Scout, Cub Scout or Scout age to your section or for looking after a new member. You have to help them to settle in and gain the Scout Membership Badge Award and become invested.

Ask your Colony leader if you can invite a friend along to join your Colony, or look after a new Beaver. With you Buddy complete the following tasks:

At the first meeting help them settle in by showing them around your meeting place (Showing them what to do in the opening and closing ceremonies)

With a Leaders help them to learn:

The Beaver Scout Promise
The Motto
The Scout Sign

Tell them about the different badges you have earned

Once your friend or Buddy has completed the Beaver Scout Membership Award they can be invested and you can be presented with your Buddy Badge at the same time.

Choose a friend, and ask Akela which would be the best night to bring your friend along, or if you would like to 'Buddy' a Beaver Scout ask Akela to pair you up with someone.

At the first meeting help them settle in by showing them around your meeting place (don't forget the toilets and where to hang their coats.) Showing them what to do in ceremonies like the Grand Howl and flag break. Introduce them to the Sixers, your Six and the leaders.

With a Leader help them to learn:

The Cub Scout Promise
The Cub Scout Law
The salute, handshake and Scout Sign.

Tell them about the different badges you have earned and what you did to get them.

Once your Buddy has completed the Cub Scout Membership Award they can be invested and you can be presented with your Buddy Badge at the same time.

Bring a friend along to Scouts on a Troop Night. Support, coach and help the friend until they are invested into the Troop and earn their Scout section Membership Badge.

Accompany the friend on a Camp outdoors of at least one nights duration. Accompany the friend on any other Scout activity.
