

Dear

Re: Completion of your Chief Scout's Award

I have today been informed by your leader that you have achieved the Chief Scouts Award – the highest award in your section – and I thought I would write to send my congratulations on this fantastic achievement!

To achieve this top award you will have had to demonstrate commitment, active participation, dedication and enthusiasm for your Scouting. I hope you've also had a lot of fun along the way!

Shortly you will be invited to one of our Chief Scout Award ceremonies at Gilwell Park, where I will have great pleasure in presenting your Chief Scouts Award Certificate on behalf of the Chief Scout, Bear Grylls. These ceremonies take place twice yearly, normally in March and November. Please check with your leader to ensure that they have submitted your name either using our online form on the County Website or by completing a Chief Scout Awards Postcard and posting to our County Secretary.

Don't forget however that this top award is but another step on a long journey! – at the end of this journey lies the Queens Scout Award, which is the highest award you can gain as an Explorer Scout or member of the Scout Network. This should be your ultimate ambition and if you continue in the same manner as you have already demonstrated then this should be more than achievable.

I look forward to meeting you at the certificate presentation – in the meantime enjoy your Scouting and keep having fun!

Yours in Scouting,
